Applying Trauma Informed Practice Principles to Children in Out of Home Care

LEAD is pleased to present this new online Workshop, the second event of the 3 'Trauma Practice' series.

This short Online Workshop will explore the specific relationship and attachment needs of children living in residential or foster care.

TO REGISTER FOR THIS WORKSHOP YOU MUST HAVE COMPLETED THE 'FOUNDATIONS OF TRAUMA INFORMED PRACTICE' EVENT. PLACES ARE STRICTLY LIMITED TO ENSURE THAT YOU EXPERIENCE A HIGH LEVEL OF ENGAGEMENT AND INTERACTIVITY.

Learning Outcomes:

- Increased understanding of how complex trauma impacts children and young people; and
- Increased knowledge of evidence based practice frameworks for complex trauma.

Facilitated by Laura Luchi—Laura Luchi is a registered Psychologist who has been working with children, families and professionals impacted by trauma and abuse since 1995 in the government, NGO and private sectors.

Laura has worked in a range of organisations including NSW Health, Community Based NGO's and NSW Family & Community Services. Laura has been in private practice for more than ten years and today, her work centres around the dynamic and fascinating world of complex and developmental trauma in children and finds it's expression in her work with professionals, carers and children alike.

To participate in this event you must have access to a PC with video capabilities and a reliable internet connection.
