CORE Child Protection

In this Online Workshop you will be building on your knowledge of Child Protection Legislation and Practices which you will have acquired in your current or previous work with children, young people and families. This half-day workshop will provide an overview of current Child Protection Legislation including recent changes. Interactive processes will be used to encourage participants to draw on their current knowledge while supporting participants to build on their practices of reporting, sharing information and responding to disclosures from children.

REGISTER NOW! PLACES ARE STRICTLY LIMITED TO ENSURE THAT YOU EXPERIENCE A HIGH LEVEL OF ENGAGEMENT AND INTERACTIVITY.

The workshop will look at:

- Increase knowledge of legal responsibilities required by NSW law;
- Articulate steps to take to support a child upon disclosure of abuse, and
- Demonstrate ability to critically reflect on information discussed including responsibilities relating to mandatory reporting.

Facilitated by Mirna Tarabay- Mirna is a Psychotherapist, Trainer and Supervisor. Her work with survivors of trauma, abuse and loss spans over two decades. She has worked in a range of capacities primarily with survivors of domestic violence and sexual abuse, both adults and children. She has a practice in Sydney where the focus of her clinical work is with survivors of domestic violence and child abuse, as well as supervision of counsellors and caseworkers working in trauma and child protection fields.

To participate in this event you must have access to a PC with video capabilities and a reliable internet connection.
